DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 59 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Regarding claim 59, the amended limitation, “A computer readable medium.” The applicant's specification fails to support such limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 59 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101, because of non-statutory as describe following:

Regarding claim 59, it is clearly calls for “a program” comprising “code means”

As best can be support by the specification (§ 0026), “a software program” is actually “a software/computer program” which does not fall within any of the enumerated statutory categories because it is an Abstract Idea, and the invention as claimed does not produce a useful, concrete, and tangible result. Therefore, claim 59 is nonstatutory. (Please see MPEP 2106.01 [R-6]).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 54-56 & 58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by Aoki, Yutaka et al. [US 20010044315 A1].

As per claim 54, Aoki teaches:

A high-speed moving object that moves along a predetermined path of movement, (Abstract) said high-speed moving object comprising:

at least one image capturing unit operable to capture image data of the inside of a car in said high-speed moving object; a first communication unit operable to transmit the image data captured by said image capturing unit over radio waves of a first frequency, when control data indicating a transmission timing is received from any one of a plurality of base stations installed along the predetermined path of movement of said high-speed moving object over radio waves of the first frequency; and a second communication unit operable to transmit the image data captured by said image capturing unit over radio waves of a second frequency, when control data indicating a transmission timing is received from any one of the plurality of base stations over radio waves of the second frequency. (§ 0045, 0049)

Claims 55-56 are the apparatus claims, corresponding to apparatus claim 54 respectively, and rejected under the same rational set forth in connection with the rejection of claim 54 respectively, above.

As per claim 58, Aoki teaches:

A construction method of a wireless communication area for constructing the wireless communication area where image data transmitted from a high-speed moving object that moves along a predetermined path of movement can be received, (Abstract) said construction method comprising alternately arranging, along the predetermined path of movement of the high-speed moving object, a plurality of first wireless communication areas where image data transmitted over radio waves of a first frequency can be received (§ 0045, 0049) and a plurality of second wireless communication areas where image data transmitted over radio waves of a second frequency can be received, so that the areas are partly overlapped. (§ 0041)

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 31-53, 57 are patentable.

The entire prior-art combination disclosed (in previous office-action of this case) fails to anticipate or render the claimed limitations in combination with all the recited limitations of the disclosed independent claims obvious (viewed the entire claim as a whole), over any of the prior art of record, alone or in combination.

Claim 59 is also patentable if 101, 112 concerns are completed.

Response to Amendments & Remarks

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 54-56 & 58 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
